CENTRAL COAST RAILROAD FESTIVAL OCTOBER 7th THROUGH 9th, 2016

The Railroad Festival is coming up in a week, so mark it on your calendar.

There will be activities throughout the County, including train layouts open to the public, a swap meet, a kid's play area, history presentations, book signings, great food, wine tasting on our La Cuesta lounge car and a bike ride along part of the historic Pacific Coast Railway right-of-way.

The Museum will be open 10 am to 4 pm on Friday and Saturday, and Noon to 4 pm on Sunday.

See the newest SLORRM exhibits - our SP #1886 CABOOSE with its beautifully restored interior and our newly acquired 1903 SP TANK CAR.

Click on the website below for specifics.

Museum members help erect the base for the Semaphore Signal Street Sign that will announce our location to all passersby. We hope to see it in place before the Central Coast Railroad Festival.

SLORRM Events Chairman Tom Mitchell and Museum Manager Diane Marchetti are certified Operation Lifesaver volunteers. Here, they man the California Operation Lifesaver booth at California Polytechnic Institute during their Week of Welcome for arriving students. They were joined by CAOL employee Terry Morris and, working together, handed out hundreds of fun and useful items bearing safety reminders.
